

JOB TITLE: Crop Production Intern

OVERVIEW: Whiskey Creek Farms is a fifth-generation family farming operation located in Lawton, Iowa a few miles east of Sioux City, Iowa. They operate a beef feedlot, calf ranch, and crop farm in IA, SD, and AR.

STARTING DATE: May 2017

SALARY: Based on experience

HOURS: 50+ hours/week but varies

JOB DESCRIPTION: The Crop Production Intern will assist in all facets of corn, soybean, and wheat production.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Must have a passion for agriculture, specifically crop production.
- Knowledge of common chemicals, insecticides, and fertilizer as well as common weeds and insects present in the Midwest is a plus.
- Operates machinery including, but not limited to: tractors and semis.
- Demonstrates ability to follow instruction, work independently, and learn quickly.
- Monitors in-season pest pressure, creates detailed scouting reports.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Associate's or Bachelor's degree in agriculture or a related field.
- Valid driver's license.
- Experience operating and maintaining equipment.
- Reliable transportation to and from work.
- Experience with precision agriculture equipment is a plus.

WORK ENVIRONMENT:

The work environment includes exposure to dust and manure and changing weather conditions. In addition, the employee is frequently exposed to work near moving mechanical parts.

PHYSICAL DEMANDS:

The physical demands described here are representative of those that must be met by an employee to successfully perform the essential functions of this job. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions. Employee must be able to lift up to 70 pounds.

APPLICATIONS:

Email resumes and cover letter to info@whiskeycreekinc.com.

Visit our website at whiskeycreekinc.com.

Questions: Call Dan at 712-943-5304.